

Guaranteed Income for Artists Step 1 of 3: Submitting Documentation of Eligibility

This form will help us ensure that you are an artist, understand the composition of your household as it relates to the self-sufficiency standard, and set us up for onboarding down the line.

The information you share with us by completing these three required steps will be reviewed against our eligibility requirements. The eligibility requirements, FAQ's and extended FAQ's from the application period are accessible on our website.

Tell us about your artistic practice

For this program, an applicant qualifies if their artistic practice fits our definition and our list of disciplines. To that end, we are looking for information that supports your regular, on-going commitment to your artistic practice that aligns with the disciplines that we list in the link above.

In your typed or video response, please describe your artistic background and experience. Please provide information that allows us to understand your primary discipline as well as when and how you are doing your artistic practice.

The website, or CV, and work samples you provide must be active and accessible (not password protected or private). We are asking for documentation that shows a comprehensive view of your artistic practice/work. If you are entering a URL for an Instagram account or a Facebook page, please make sure that it represents your work and that you are easily identified along with your artistic practice.
